Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, October 29, 1824.

Both Capitals sold at Cohen's.

Agreeably to announcement the drawing of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY was completed yesterday afternoon the 28th inst. and in return for the extensive and continued patronage we have received from our friends and the public, we have the gratification of having distributed amongst them from our Office, the whole of the Great Capitals which were sold in the scheme.—The 20,000 DOLLAR PRIZE which came out yesterday afternoon to No 2255 was sold in a whole ticket at COHEN'S OFFICE, and is owned jointly by Mr. ANDREW T. LEAKIN a Book-keeper in the Franklin Bank in this city, and a gentleman whose name we have not yet permission to give. The 10,000 dollar prize which came out to No. 3994 is the property of a DISTANT ADVENTURER who owns the entire ticket—we shall announce his name and residence as soon as we receive permission. In the distribution of these two Capitals, we have to congratulate both our town and country customers, both having participated in the sports and prizes of the day.

Grand State Lottery, No. 3.

The scheme of this lottery which we presented in the last Register, and which our friends will find in the supplement which accompanies this day's Gazette, we are gratified in hearing the decided approbation it has met with, and which we had anticipated, from the judicious sums into which the prizes have been arranged. The sales have been already so large that the Commissioners have fixed the day for commencing the drawing, and which we have the pleasure to announce, will take place in the City of BALTIMORE, on Wednesday the 17th of NOVEMBER.

We have Whole Tickets and Shares in the greatest variety of Numbers, and we would recommend the renewal of Monument Prizes in it, and to be done without delay, in order to take the chance for the prizes which may come out at an early period of the drawing. Our usual prompt and punctual attention will be paid to all Orders, whether for whole tickets or shares.

Be particular in addressing to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.—BALTIMORE.

No 9799 a Prize of 1000 Dollars.

This snug little prize also drawn yesterday afternoon in the MONUMENT LOTTERY, we had the pleasure of sending to a distant adventurer at Powelson, Georgia, in June last. He had enclosed twenty dollars for a ticket in the Grand State Lottery, which was drawing when his letter was written, but it did not reach us till after the drawing was over—we therefore invested the money sent, in two tickets in the Monument Lottery, giving him the privilege of returning the tickets per the succeeding mail, if the investment was not satisfactory made—He however approved the same, and kept the tickets, one of which has drawn the handsome sum of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and for which the cash is ready, & waiting the presentation of the ticket.

Extensive distribution again.

This day's Register contains the drawing of this week in the Monument Lottery, and which was completed yesterday. The prizes of Fifty Dollars and upwards, sent to our distant friends, as usual were very numerous, and took a wide range. Those which came out at the 14th drawing, we had the pleasure of sending to Petersburg, Charlottesville, Staunton and Lynchburg in Virginia—Wilmington, Leasburg and Mocksville in North Carolina—Augusta, Savannah and Louisville in Georgia, and Lancaster in Ohio. Those of the 15th drawing, to Alexandria D. C.—Fayetteville and Salisbury in N. Carolina—Alexandria and Lancaster in Pennsylvania, and Beaufort and Georgetown in S. Carolina. Those of the 16th drawing, to Powelson and Blountsville in Georgia—Milton, Halifax and Wilflong's Mills in N. Carolina—Royalton, Cincinnati and Williamsburg in Ohio—Middleburg and Havredegance in Maryland—Martinsburg, Paddytown, Brydie's Store and Chesterfield in Virginia, and Cayuga and Buffalo in New York. The 20 dollar and minor prizes were scattered in every section of the Union.

Progress of the Nation's Guest.

We have issued no paper since the 9th ulto. in consequence of there having been no lottery drawing in the interval—Under the heading of this article in the Register of that date, we noticed the progress of GEN LA FAYETTE, and left him in New-York on his return from the New-England states—As had been anticipated his reception in NEW-JERSEY was in unison with the feelings which had been excited in every class of our Citizens since his arrival—that of spontaneous and grateful welcome. He entered PHILADELPHIA on Tuesday the 28th ulto. under the most enthusiastic demonstrations of joy and respect, accompanied by the Governors of NEW-JERSEY and PENNSYLVANIA and an escort of Military and Citizens never before equalled in that City, and after passing under arches erected for the occasion in various streets, at length reached that one of most splendid and classic construction in Chesnut street opposite the State House, through which he was conducted to the Hall of Independence, the people rending the air with their acclamations—He was then addressed by the Mayor, to which the General replied; numerous introductions then took place, and after partaking of refreshments, the General was then conducted to the lodgings which had been elegantly fitted up for him at the Mansion House Hotel—In the evening the City was brilliantly illuminated. General LA FAYETTE, remained in Philadelphia till the Tuesday following when he embarked, and after passing through the State of DELAWARE under similar marks of attention, he reached the MARYLAND line, where he was received by the Aids of the Governor of Maryland and was accompanied by them and an escort of Cavalry to Frenchtown, where on the deck of the steam boat United States, the deputations from the City of BALTIMORE, both civil and military, were in waiting to receive him.

As the steam Boat entered the Patapsco on the 7th the morning sun shone forth in its brightest effulgence—On approaching Fort McHenry the Steam Boats Maryland, Virginia, Philadelphia, and Eagle, all beautifully dressed, with flags and streamers flying, came down the river full of anxious citizens, to meet the boat United States, and passed transversely around her—as they passed, the people on board waved their hats, and gave the most hearty, enlivening and oft repeated cheering. The five boats, in regular order, the United States leading the van, proceeded for the Fort, during which, they came alongside alternately and the passengers saluted the General, which he received, uncovered, in the most cordial and delicate manner. The whole scene was most interesting—it was splendid—we cannot describe it. On landing at the Fort and entering the gate the troops of the garrison presented arms—then opened to the right and left, which brought to his view the TENT OF WASHINGTON, under whose venerable canopy stood ready to receive him, those illustrious and aged patriots HOWARD and CARROLL, his venerated companions in the good old cause.

We must leave it to the imaginations of our readers to picture the scene which took place at the meeting of these venerable sires.

At 10 o'clock the General departed from the Fort; a superb barouche drawn by four black horses with a postillion mounted on each, was in waiting to receive and convey him to the City.—Each horse was held by a man dressed in white cambrick, according to the Turkish costume, with a blue silk sash; the postillions wore caps trimmed with white cord.—The equipage on the whole was truly splendid. With the General were also seated in the barouche the venerable Howard and Carroll, and General Smith. Twenty other carriages, containing the Committee, the Society of Cincinnati and other gentleman in attendance, followed, and the whole, escorted by about 500 cavalry in uniform, proceeded to the city, passing under an elegant triumphal arch; thence they proceeded to Market street, at the entrance of which, as well as at the Market bridge, a splendid triumphal arch was erected. At the entrance to Market-st. rested the right of the line of troops, which extended the whole length of that street to some distance beyond the bridge.—At the head of the line the General's companions alighted and entered another carriage—he then passed in review the whole line of troops, who presented arms to him. The escort of cavalry continued with him to Fell's Point and back, returning through Pratt street, and thence to the Exchange, where he was received by the Mayor and Corporate Authorities of the City. At the conclusion of General La Fayette's reception by the civil authorities, he proceeded, accompanied by them, the Cincinnati and the other distinguished personages and escorted by the City cavalry to the head of Light street, where under a Canopy erected, he received the passing Salute of the Military. The escort passed to the rear of the Canopy and formed in line in front of his quarters.

The Mayor then conducted the City's Guest to his quarters at the Fountain Inn, where at 5 o'clock he sat down to a splendid dinner at which the Mayor presided. In the evening the City was splendidly and brilliantly ILLUMINATED—The next day the General received the visits of Ladies and Citizens, and after dining with the Corporation, visited the GRAND LODGE of Maryland, where he was received as an honorary member—he then proceeded to the theatre where was given in honour of his arrival the most splendid BALL ever witnessed in Baltimore—On the following day (Saturday) he visited the UNIVERSITY where the degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on him. On the same day he dined with the Society of CINCINNATI, and in the evening visited Peale's MUSEUM. On Sunday morning the Gen. attended religious service at the Cathedral, and in the afternoon at St. Paul's Church.

On the next day, Monday the 11th, there was a review of the whole division of Military, after which the Gen. departed for Washington City, where he arrived next morning, having lodged at Rosburg.

The departure of our distinguished guest was no less splendid than his reception—no diminution in attention and in marks of affection; and from all the information we can obtain from those who have been with him elsewhere, we state with confidence, that Baltimore has not been surpassed by any city, in giving a splendid and warm hearted welcome to the great and good LA FAYETTE.
